

Jelena Božović is an Artist and the Director of the Contemporary Art Centre in Montenegro. She graduated from the Faculty of Fine Arts in Cetinje in the class of Professor Bane Sekulić and she is a specialist in Graphic Design with many years of experience in managing a company in the field of graphic design and textile production.

Since September 2021, she has been the Director of the Contemporary Art Centre in Montenegro, authorized to organize and manage the operations of this public institution, proposes business policy and program concepts for the development of the institution, and ensures the provision of conditions and funds for the implementation of the activities.

Ms. Božović is the Commissioner of the Pavilion of Montenegro at the 59th Venice Art Biennale and a member of the Council of the National Museum of Montenegro.